New Hotel Openings to Watch in 2023

BY SAVANNAH LEEDY · DECEMBER 22, 2022 · 3 MINUTE READ

With 2023 approaching, a whole new year of travel is ahead. Here are some of the most exciting hotels that are opening in the upcoming year to watch for, whether you're looking to check off a bucket list destination or for a prestigious hospitality experience.

Opening early 2023

Known for its collection of chic boutique hotels in more private destinations, French hospitality group Maisons Pariente will debut their first urban property, Le Grand Mazarin, in the heart of Paris in 2023. The whimsical hotel is housed within historic buildings near the Seine in the Marais district. Its 17th century-inspired décor is complemented by modern lush textures and intricate patterns, creating an ambiance that is both true to the surrounding area and the modern traveler. Le Grand Mazarin offers the highest level of service in an intimate setting, featuring floor-to-ceiling windows, 50 rooms and 11 suites, a lively bar and stunning pool.
