HÔTEL LOU PINET Saint-Tropez, France

The Hôtel Lou Pinet – sister hotel of Crillon Le Brave in Provence – is a pistachio-shuttered bolthole that radiates the bohemian spirit of '60s Saint-Tropez, with 34 rooms in three separate houses inspired by the works of Matisse, Picasso and Calder. What could have been a traditionally calm Riviera palette of whitewash and terracotta has been electrified with peppy paint strokes and curvy retro furniture. There's petanque, pastis and morning yoga, plus Tata Harper treatments in a bijou cave-like spa beyond the emerald-green swimming pool. Take one of the hotel's Citroën 2CVs and drive 10 minutes to the beaches of Pampelonne, then return to the hotel's lantern-lit steak restaurant for sizzling cuts of black angus prime and Kobe beef.

VIVE LA FRANCE

The dreamy aesthetic of the Hôtel Lou Pinet was the vision of architect and designer Charles Zana.
